Study the five channels of communication

Recognize and assess credibility vs. deception

Putting it all together. Enhancing your personal and professional life using the science of human behavior.

Students should bring several pens.

Observed Mandates Include:

Const. Use of LE Authority

Crisis Intervention

Procedural Justice

De-Escalation Techniques W/ Role Play

Officer Safety including Cover, Concealment and Time

COURSE GOALS: Equip students with the tools and knowledge that will allow them to confidently and scientifically handle any situation by knowing others emotions based on five channels of communication. Assess credibility and know what questions to ask which cause an emotional response. Then to be able to articulate why they came to their decision. Also to allow students to share their knowledge with others.

ABOUT BRUCE JACOBS Mr. Bruce Jacobs spent his last nine years of his law enforcement career serving as the Crime Prevention Sergeant of the Manitowoc City Police Department before retiring from the Wisconsin City of Manitowoc Police Department after thirty years of decorated service; earning the Officer of the Year Award multiple times.

Sergeant Jacobs' (retd.) lengthy career included top positions of SRO (School Resource Officer), where he performed thousands of interviews and investigations; twenty-five years as a DARE Officer; nine years serving as a Board Member of the State of Wisconsin DARE Officers Association. In addition, Mr. Jacobs served nine years as a Board Member for the Manitowoc County Crime Stoppers Council; and served along with several other esteemed community members on the Board of Healthiest Manitowoc County Substance Abuse Prevention Coalition.

In addition to his career with the Manitowoc Police Department, Bruce is the founder and former owner of the Advantage Driving School, LLC (2010 -2019); continues to serve as an adjunct professor for the Northeast Wisconsin Technical College and Lakeshore Technical College, also in Wisconsin.

Currently, Bruce is founder and President of the Behavioral Analysis and Security Consultants LLC and is licensed as a Private Investigator in the State of Wisconsin, which provides crime prevention training to law enforcement officials, corporations, businesses, and schools.

Bruce earned his bachelor's degree in Administration of Justice from Marian University, Wisconsin.
